DESCRIPTION OF VOLUNTEER DUTIES

SET-UP – Setting up the wall on the platform, adjusting the lighting as needed. This will begin on Sunday, April 4, 1:00 p.m. If you would like to assist with building the platform, please indicate on front and you will be notified of date and time that this will occur.

TAKE DOWN – Removing the wall from the platform and loading into the truck it came in. This will follow the closing ceremony on Sunday, April 11, beginning at approximately 2:30 p.m.

KITCHEN – Assist with preparing and serving the food to the volunteers. Food is being donated or will be purchased with donated funds.

GROUNDS MAINTENANCE – Assist with grounds clean-up, emptying trash cans, picking up trash, policing the area for any possible hazards, etc. Volunteers would also assist with setting up for the ceremonies, programs, etc. during the week.

INFORMATION ASSISTANT – Directing visitors to the wall, restrooms, information tent, answer questions about programs, assist in Visitor Center, etc.

INFORMATION TENT – Assist visitors with locating names on the wall using a computer program, assist with wall rubbings, etc.

BUS LOADING/UNLOADING – Shuttle buses will be available to transport visitors from various parking areas in Johnson City to the wall and back. Volunteers will assist riders with getting on and off the buses at these locations.

WALL COUNSELORS – Assist visitors seeking names on the wall and provide a listening ear. This is a sensitive job and training will be provided prior to your shift.

TRAFFIC CONTROL ASSISTANT – Assist with traffic control at barricades, gates, etc.

MISC. DUTIES – Assist with setting up chairs, etc. for the various ceremonies, programs, etc.

We greatly appreciate each person who volunteers. Each volunteer is required to sign the Volunteer Agreement Form that will be provided at the information station located at the Education Center.
